|---|--|--|
| Location: Port Vila, Vanuatu | Type of Appointment: Fixed Term | Reference Number: 001/04/19-OGCIO |
| | Commencement: ASAP | Duration: 12 Months |

Developments in the ICT/Telecommunication sector in Vanuatu has progress in the last 10 years or more with support from Development Partners. This is made possible with the continuing good updated policies and sound regulation, which are key to the success of these developments. The Government of Vanuatu expects its continued reforms will greatly improve services in terms of quality, affordability, access and availability to telecommunication and ICT services throughout Vanuatu.

The Government of Vanuatu is seeking to appoint an expert consultant to lead the review of existing National ICT Policy, the Universal Access Policy (UAP) and the Cyber Security Policy and developing new policies to address new identified needs.

This role will provide the Office of the Government Chief Information Officer (OGCIO) under the Ministry of the Prime Minister as Minister responsible for ICT, Telecommunication and Broadcasting with a resource responsible to strengthen ICT policy, regulation and legislative framework. This will ensure that ICT development continues to reflect world best practices, and is suitable for the goals and context of Vanuatu based on the National Sustainable Development Plan – the People's Plan.

The consultant will work in close collaboration with many government entities including the office of the Telecommunication, Radiocommunications and Broadcasting Regulator. This position reports to the Office of the Government Chief Information Officer.

This request for expression of interest follows the general procurement guidelines under the Central Tender Board Act, of the Republic of Vanuatu. The OGCIO intends to apply its funding allocation under the GfG – PMO Grant for the contract of the ICT Policy Advisory role.

The Government of Vanuatu through the OGCIO now invites eligible consultants to indicate their interest in providing the service. Interested consultants must provide information indicating that they are qualified to perform the service (brochures, descriptions of similar assignments, experience in similar conditions, availability of appropriate skills, etc).

A consultant will be selected in accordance with the procedures set out in the Central Tenders Board Act, of the Republic of Vanuatu.

Interested consultants may obtain further information including copy of the Terms of Reference at the following contact:
